WILL R., F. & P. DEGLARE AN EXTRA DIVIDEND?

Rumor Has It That a "Watermelon" Will Be Cut at Annual Meeting.

The recent strength in the stock and dividend obligations of the Richmond, Predericksburg and Potomac Railroad has revived the rumor of an incease in cash or scrip dividends. This rumor is persistent, and while no one who is in a position to speak with authority will give any information, the marked advance in any information, the imarked suvance in the securities of this company gives ground to the belief that the stockholders will at last receive substantial recogni-tion for the earnings that have been put back into the property. For a number of years the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potonias Railbond has done a horse Potomac Relirond has done a harme the amount of construction, and has fiberally the purchased land, as, for example, the old and Fair Graunds, and equipment, our of its and Far Grounds, and equipment, or, of its carnings.

From the report made to the stock-holders last year it appeared that after paying all expenses and dividends, and carrying $150,000 to special accounts the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Raironal still had a profit and loss account showing a balance of more than $150,000 to $150,000.

10,000. It is understood that the earnings have the equally good this year, and in the face of such conditions it will be difficult to withstand the demand of the stockholders for a large share in the profits.
